WEED SELLS AT $1.16 A POUND

Big Home Warehouse Breaks All Records Everywhere On Basket of Cotton & Wilson Today.

If the tobacco market continues a few months longer there's no telling how high the Richmond market would go.

A basket of tobacco sold at the Big Home House today at $1.16 a pound, beating all previous records a mile. The basket was in the crop sold at this popular house by Brutus J. Cotton and Wilson and the whole crop averaged around 70 cents a pound, and is said to have had a large proportion of low grade weed, at that.

The previous high mark for this market was $1.10 a pound, but the buyers went after this crop of Mr.
Cotton's and it broke all marks. W. S.
Judy, of the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, bought this basket, just as he has the others that "went over the top" and smashed all records.

The rains have put tobacco in good shape for handling again, and both houses are holding splendid sales.
Notwithstanding the fact that a large part of the tobacco in this section is already in, and much of the weed brought in is fag end stuff, prices are continuing way up, and every one who has a crop of any sort is getting figures that is making his heart glad.
Averages right around 70 cents per pound are the rule where the weed has any pretensions to class. A glance at these figures from the Big Home House sales this week show just how good this market is:

Introduction.

It affords us pleasure to introduce to the people our Mr. Asher, who comes to take a position in our shop.
Mr. Asher is a son of Col. A. J. Asher one of the largest land owners in Kentucky, and one of its wealthiest citizens. Our Mr. Asher has had 15 years experience in the best automobile shops of the country and is a first class all round man. He comes recently from the Pierce-Arrow Automobile Company shops where he held responsible positions. He was for several years in the Ford shops and knows the Ford car as well as any man in Kentucky. He knows the intricate and delicate mechanism of any cars and is a workman of fine attainments and large experience. With Mr. Asher added to our force, we feel sure that our shop is fully equipped to handle any difficulty that may arise.

We are selecting our men with great care, having only one and in view and that is to render a full dollar's worth of service for each dollar paid us.

Next week we will have another announcement to make, one that the people will be particularly interested in reading.

Prominent Garrard Farmer Kills Bull With Sword

A dispatch from Lancaster this week said: The spectacle of a staid business man of Lancaster, attired in a flaming red sweater and armed with a keen two-edged sword, engaged in desperate combat with an angry bull, which he finally dispatched after cutting off one of its horns and plunging the blade to the hilt in the maddened bovine's neck, was a rare sight afforded a number of residents just outside this city on W. R. Cook's farm.
F. B. Marksberry, of Lancaster, was the treader and his victim was one of the Jersey bulls on the farm of his friend, Mr. Cook. It required some explanation on Mr. Marksberry's part as to just how it happened to be engaged in such an unusual combat. Mr.
Marksberry, it seems, is the owner of a handsome Damascus blade, with delicated ornamented hilt, which is an heirloom and was worn by a Colonel in the Revolutionary War. A 30-inch blade, it has a rapier point and is very flexible. Mr. Marksberry buckled on sword and started out on foot across country to call upon Mr. Cook, who had often expressed the desire to examine the sword. All would have been well save that in an unguarded moment, Mr. Marksberry had chosen to don a crimson sweater. Mr. Marks-berry was peacefully proceeding when he heard the thunder of hoofs behind him and leaped nimbly aside just in time to avoid being gored by the belligerent bull. His sword leaped from the scabbard and had bitten off the bull's horn before the animal had gone two steps. The animal died in two hours, and Mr. Cook was one of the first to congratulate his friend upon his prowess.

Mrs. J. W. Caperton Sells Her Home, "Blair Park"

Wakefield-Davis Realty Company, of Shelbyville Purchase Attractive Residential Site To Subdivide Into Building Lots

Another handsome and very desirable residence addition was assured for Richmond this morning when negotiations were consummated by which Mrs. James W. Caperton has sold her home "Blair Park," to the Wakefield-Davis Realty Company of Shelbyville.
The deal was handled by L. P. Evans, Richmond's hustling real estate agent, and the consideration is said to have been around $35,000 or $40,000. Possession is to be given May 1st, next.
"Blair Park" is one of the most attractive old homes and residence sites in this section. It has been the Caperton home for many years. There are 97 acres in the tract and a handsome old house. Lying right on the edge of Richmond, where West Main street merges into the Lexington pike, it offers a most pretentious and desirable site for subdividing into attractive building lots. It is understood that the new owners plan to hold a sale during the summer, making it an ideal residential section, with all modern conveniences and improvements.

The Wakefield-Davis Realty Company is one of the big real estate firms of Kentucky. It has probably sold more big farms and residences than any other firm in this part of the state during the past twelve months, and specializing in this class of work as it does, it is qualified in every way to conduct the transformation of this handsome old home property into an

Madison Boy Reported Missing In Russia

Wm. L. Peyton, of Fifth street, received a telegram from the War Department, the following message concerning his son, which will be read with interest and regret by the many friends here of the young man:

Washington, D. C., Feb. 12.
Wm. L. Peyton, Richmond, y.
Deeply regret to inform you that Corporal Edward W. Peyton, infantry, is officially reported as missing in action in Russia since January 19. Further information will be sent you when received.

HARRIS, Adj. General.
It is hoped that young Peyton may have been captured, and still alive.
Few of his friends knew that he was in Russia until this wire came.

Big Damage Suit Under Way

The $25,000 damage suit of W. N.
Deering, a carpenter, against the L. & N. railroad, was taken up by circuit court this morning. It promises to be one of the hardest fought legal actions during the present term of court. Deering, who is a Richmond man, fell from a scaffolding while working on the new depot the railroad company was building at Maloney.
Lee county, in the spring of 1917. He sustained injuries which have made him a cripple for life. It is said. He is represented by Judge Frank Peak of the firm of Edwards-Ogden and Peak, of Louisville, and Attorney John Noland, of this city. Judge Peak was formerly on the bench in the Shelby-Henry district, and is one of the best known jurists in the state and one of the ablest lawyers. A. R.
Burnam, Jr., is representing the railroad company, assisted by Chief Claim Agent A. M. Warren.
The jury gave Taylor Bogie $195 damages against Robert Taylor for killing his horse and smashing his buggy in an auto accident last summer. The accident occurred on the Lexington pike. A claim of $5 for carting off the dead horse, was not contested.

There will be preaching at Pilot Knob church every second Saturday and Sunday. Bro. Cornett was called as pastor for the rest of the year.

Society of Nations Plan May Be Ready Friday

Paris, Feb. 13—The commission on the Society of Nations resumed its sessions this morning with a full at-ary session of the peace conference Friday.

England To Ask Indemnity

(By Associated Press)
London, Feb. 13—Bulletin—The British delegates at the peace conference have been definitely instructed to claim indemnity which will include the cost of the war as well as damage actually caused, it was announced by Bonar Law, in the House of Commons today. Bonar Law, who is the government leader in the House, said a commission is now considering the amount to be claimed, the method by which the indemnity will be guaranteed and means of enforcing payment.

Congress To Regulate Meat

Washington, Feb. 13—Bulletin—Chairman Gore announced today that the Senate Agricultural Committee is planning a favorable report on the bill to regulate the meat industry at this session of Congress. It is unofficially indicated that the pending Kendrick bill licensing the meat industry concerns and divorcing stock yards and refrigerator cars from packing house control would be approved rather than the Sims bill which provides for government ownership for some facilities of the industry.

LOTS OF CAPITAL FOR TRAVEL

Louisville, Feb. 13—It is announced today that the Kentucky Jockey Club, which will take over the race tracks here, at Lexington and Latonia, will have a capital of three million dollars.

KENTUCKIANS ON BOARD

New York, Feb. 13—The cruiser Seattle arrived today with 1,500 troops including 91 enlisted men of the Kentucky and Montana National Guard.

Congleton Farms In Fayette Sell Well

Splendid pieces were paid for the farms of Messrs. Lee Congleton and sons of Richmond, at the sale conducted Wednesday by Edward H. Byars, of Lexington. These farms are located over the Fayette county line, and were bought by the Messrs. Congleton only a short time ago, at figures considerably less than they sold for, it is understood, thus netting them a nice profit.

The farm known as the Good Ike Shelby place of close to 500 acres was purchased by a Mr. McCormick at $266 an acre. This place is eight miles south of Lexington on the Jack's Creek pike.

One hundred acres of land adjoining the Smith place, were bought by Frank Congleton at $226.25 an acre.

The Stevens farm of about 190 acres, nine miles this side of Lexington, on the Richmond pike, sold at $295 an acre.

Mrs. Alice M. Perkins Dead

Mrs. Alice M. Perkins, aged 25 years, died Monday morning at her home near Newby. She is survived by her husband, Eddie Perkins, and four children, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Stocker, of Baldwin, and two sisters, besides many friends to mourn her loss. Funeral services were held at the residence of J. H. Jones, near the family burying ground, by Rev. Fred Sanders, after which the remains were laid to rest in the family lot. She was a member of the Christian church and greatly beloved by all who knew her.

ASK YOUR NEIGHBOR

It has been said that there is now hardly a city, town or village in this country wherein some woman does not reside who has found health in that good old-fashioned remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Therefore, if you are suffering from some ailment, and hardly know what to do for it, and tried other remedies without help, ask your neighbor, if she has ever used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
If she herself has never had the need for it, undoubtedly she knows others who were just in your condition and who have been restored to health by its use.

Ensign Arnold Hanger Writes Interesting Description of His Visit To Battle Fields and Trenches

Ensign Arnold Hanger, who was on the destroyer Tarbell, which conveyed the President's liner, George Washington, to the Peace Conference, has written his mother, Mrs. H. B. Hanger, here a very interesting letter, describing his experiences. The missive was dated at Brest, France, Dec. 8. He wrote:

Dearest Family—Have returned to my ship and made a trip to Queenstown, England since I wrote you from Paris. I am now back in Brest. We had a rough trip of it with the old ship. Since we came to this side, it has rained four out of five days. The sun has been out only twice. There is no news concerning our return to the states. My trip to the front was very interesting. We covered in all about 150 miles of first and second line trenches. It is impossible to conceive the vastness of such a war without seeing the waste of those once-beautiful French villages and forests.
We ended our tour with a trip to the city, Rheims. Rheims up until the bombardment, was a city of 150,000 population. Today there are no inhabitants save French troops billeted there. All the buildings and residences are level with the ground. One sees just piles of brick and stone knocked into all sorts of shapes. Here and there in the ruins one will see a chicken or a dog trying to live. Copper kettles and other domestic implements of the household are blown around into all sorts of shapes.

Rheims was shelled (long range) for 15 months and although the city is nothing but ruins, the boche never captured it. The cathedral there, in which Joan of Arc realized her spiritual leadership back in the 13th century, still stands. The roof is gone and most of the leaded glass windows. The main structure still stands although badly chipped by shrapnel and heat. During the bombardment, there were numerous fires and the heat flaked the outside etchings and sculptural pieces.

There are many other small villages in the Champagne district which are reduced to dust no higher than one's waist. A few of the old French peasants have come back to their homes to live in a cellar, but these are hard to find. The country is a barren waste, trees for miles around are stripped and shot down to the stump. Wonderful vineyards are ripped up with shell holes. In fact, one tumbles into so many shell holes that they cease to be a thing of interest, but a nuisance.

In the Belleau Wood district where the 5th and 6th Marines saved Paris in June, 1918, it is hard to realize the magnitude and fierceness of the fighting. For the trees still stand and there are few trenches and shell holes.
This, however, was due to the open fighting. It was worse than trench warfare. Some call it "the too close for bayonet battle." It was throat to throat. Those Marines are certainly the "devil dogs." They came into the breach just as the French had thrown down their guns and were in a full retreat to Paris. The Marines (only 4, 000) fought and held until re-inforcements came. Out of the 4,000, it is said that 3,800 were hit. From the name of the battle, I expected to see a huge forest, but there never was any forest.

The military roads all the way up to the front are very good. The camouflage screens still stand over the roads and on both sides. All over No Man's Land in the Soissons district, you see the worst, just as the Huns left it in their pell mell retreat. We went thru the German first and second line trenches and then the French together with the heavy artillery bases. The trenches are works of art. The Soissons No Man's Land is probably the most interesting because the most grievous. It was once a beautiful plateau, about seven miles long and eight miles wide. Now it is a mass of barbed wire, unexploded ammunition, smashed guns and equipment of all sorts. French and German dead, together with horses, mules and dogs, are thrown about unburied. The trenches are beyond description. Nothing has been touched since the German retreat. In time all of this debris will be collected and the trenches ought to afford many a tourist the thrill of his life. For this country where they fought is to be made a national park. There is a great deal which I have not time to write about now. I missed home and Chris-mas time a great deal, but the changes ought to be good for my being there to the next one. A heartfelt love and best wishes to all.

Richmond Daily Register

S. M. Sautley, Editor & Proprietor

Entered at the postoffice at Richmond Ky., as second class mail matter under Act of Congress of 1875.

The Louisville Post attempts to console itself with the reflection that if one is deprived of one's "occasional" indulgence in liquor, he can see ball games better. But he cannot see so many at once time.—Cynthiana Democrat. Well, he may be able to see the "grounders" and "skippers," as the boys used to call 'em, but nary a "high ball" again.

BETTER THINK THIS OVER.

Some merchants who haven't foresight enough to spend a few dollars in advertising to dispose of their stocks, will lose hundreds of dollars by having high-priced goods on their shelves when war prices tumble, as they certainly will.—Cynthiana Democrat.

Helps Sick Women

Cardui, the woman's tonic, helped Mrs. William Eversole, of Hazel Knich, Ky. Read what she writes: "I had a general breaking-down of my health. I was in bed for weeks, unable to get up. I had such a weakness and dizziness, ... and the pains were very severe. A friend told me I had tried everything else, why not Cardui?... I did, and soon saw it was helping me... After 12 bottles, I am strong and well."

TAKE

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Do you feel weak, dizzy, worn-out? Is your lack of good health caused from any of the complaints so common to women? Then why not give Cardui a trial? It should surely do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women who suffered—it should help you back to health.

Ask some lady friend who has taken Cardui. She will tell you how it helped her. Try Cardui.

We have for sale cheap the large barn on lot at corner of Second and Water street. It can easily be moved and will provide sufficient lumber for a first class tobacco barn. You won't find lumber anywhere for that tobacco barn you're planning to build at anything like the price you can buy this. Apply to Daily Register office at once.

THINK OF THE MONEY YOU CAN SAVE ON SHOES

Clarence J. Bloemer of St. Louis, Missouri, writes, "I have a pair of shoes with Neolin Soles and have used them for two years. I think they will last another six months."

Mr. Bloemer also recommends Neolin Soles for their comfort and waterproofness.

It is a remarkable fact that Neolin Soles cost no more than others that give only ordinary wear. You can get them on new shoes in many styles for men, women, and children—and they are available everywhere for resoling, too.

And look at the money you save—because you need fewer pairs of shoes with Neolin Soles. Remember—these soles are made by Science to be especially tough and durable. They are manufactured by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. of Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels—guaranteed to outwear any other heels.

DEATH OF MRS. J. W. PORTER.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Hagan are back from Lexington where they attended the funeral of Mrs. J. W. Porter, who had many friends here. Mr. Porter being a brother of Mrs. Hagan. The deceased was 51 years of age. Death was due to cerebral hemorrhage, complicated with Bright's disease, which followed on attack of influenza. Mrs. Porter was a woman of rare intellectual accomplishments and consecrated christian character. She was a member of an old and prominent Blue Grass family and greatly beloved by all who knew her. She was a graduate of Hamilton College and a member of the Central Christian church was active in church and community work. She was especially interested in the activities of the Red Cross, and her energy and sympathy for this cause was a constant source of inspiration to those associated with her. A pathetic of her death is that it occurred on the 27th anniversary of her return from her bridal trip.

HOW HUNS KEPT HOLD ON METALS

Vivid Account by Australian Premier of Methods All Over the World.

IT STILL HAS ITS POWER

An Octopus, Whose Tentacles Extend All Over the World and Worked Unceasingly for Commercial Benefit of Germany.

New York.—Attention has been called a number of times to the manner in which the Germans managed to dominate in the control and price of nonferrous metals. One branch of their organization was taken over by A. Mitchell Palmer, the alien property custodian. This concerned itself with handling the metals in this country. But the ramifications of the German octopus were never as graphically described as in an address made by W. M. Hughes, the Australian prime minister, at the Mansion house, London, some time ago while the war was still on.

He took as his text what he called the great firm of Mertons, as the British end of the German trust was designated. He said it was "a living outward and visible sign of the rottenness within," and an agent of the enemy. Then he went on to say:

"It is the English branch of one of the greatest companies the world has ever seen; it is a combination, an octopus whose tentacles extended before the war all over the world, and whose heart was at Frankfurt-on-Main. It is an organization that had a stranglehold on the whole of the world, that affected not only its commercial and industrial life, but affected also the political life; which worked unceasingly for the commercial benefit of Germany, which gathered huge profits for the benefit of Germany.

Served Germany Well.

"It was a most powerful and a most serviceable instrument in the German policy of penetration. It served the power of the kaiser better than a dozen legions on the field, and it is now here today, as it has been, with its ramifications in our midst. It still has its power, the profits are being gathered in—this firm, which for three years after the war was the London agent, the English agent, of the American Metal company, of which I shall speak in a moment.

"This was the firm from which Britain bought for 12 months after the war the metals necessary for carrying on the war. This firm was founded by Wilhelm Merton of Frankfurt, and from the day of its establishment it has spread its tentacles out, and the firm has grown every passing day. It is called Metallgesellschaft, the American Metal company, the African Metal company, Schweizerische Gesellschaft in Switzerland; it has a dual name which is sometimes French and sometimes something else; but it is always German in essence. It pushed out its tentacles over Europe from place to place.

"It pushed another tentacle across the ocean to Australia, calling itself the Australian Metal company; it called itself the Australian Metal company, but it was not Australian. It was a company held by Germany; it had German directors, and very naturally, as was their custom, they covered themselves with the cloak of naturalization. Bit by bit they despoiled and entangled the great metal industries of Australia in a grip until they had them body and soul, and so it was that when the war broke out there was this great metal industry, the Beer Sondernher in one shape or another, the Metallgesellschaft, and the Metallurgische Gesellschaft, the whole controlling the channels from which the metal came, determining how it should be produced and what prices it should be sold at all over the world. What they did in Australia they did elsewhere.

In the United States.

"In America they pushed out another tentacle; there was a company called the American Metal company. It was a company in which, out of 70,000 called-up shares, 34,000, or 49 per cent, were held by the Metallgesellschaft at Frankfurt, 27 per cent by Mertons of this place and the remaining 18 per cent were held mostly by hyphenated Germans, a few being held by bona fide Americans who were put right in the front of the shop window to deceive the credulous. Now I absolutely acquit here the English shareholders, the innocent shareholders in Mertons, of all blame. They went into this in a bona fide way, they did not realize what were the designs of these people; but I am directing my remarks here against the firm, against the Metallurgische Gesellschaft, against the great German octopus which dominated the world, which stayed here for four years after the war. It is difficult to understand how they should have remained here. It is not sufficient to deny them a license; they ought not to be allowed to trade at all. Their company should be wound up and they should disappear from the commercial life of the country."

Social and Personal

Cecilian Club Notes.

Mrs. Robert Burnam, Sr., was the gracious hostess of the Cecilian Club on Wednesday afternoon at her home on the Summit. The roll call included items of interest concerning the composers selected for the afternoon. The second number, a piano solo, "Song of the Brook," by Lack, played by Miss Mary D. Pickels, was most characteristic of the composer in its smooth, flowing movement. This was followed by Mrs. T. D. Chenault in a lovely vocal number "In the Woods," by Bizet. Chaminade's "Air de Ballet" op. 30, was most brilliant in its interpretation by Mrs. Denny. Mrs. Paul Burnam, after a preparatory talk on the peculiarities of the modern French composer, sang a double number a "Romanza" by Debussy, and Messenet's "Elegie," contrasting the new and the old in delightful style. Godard's "Jugglery," played by Miss Olivia Baldwin, with marked skill and grace of execution, was altogether pleasing to the audience. Mrs. Middleton's number, "Idylla," by Lack, was the second selection from this composer, who is known for his many attractive and graceful compositions. The Debussy selection "Arabesque" No. 2, played by Miss Watts with such good effect, showed the unusual intellectuality of the composer who has been called by some of his contemporaries the master-magician. Miss Miriam Noland in her rich contralto voice sang Hahn's "With Wings Provided" the American selection contrasting favorably with the preceding French music. The program came to a brilliant close in the piano number contributed by Miss Alice Metcalf, Smetana's "By the Seashore," followed by the touching little lullaby "Baby" of Carrie Jacob's Bond. The guests included Mrs. Hart, of Virginia Mrs. Waller Bennett, Miss Lucia Burnam, Mrs. H. L. Perry, Mrs. R. C. Stockton, Mrs. Thomas Smith, Mrs. Murray Smith, Mrs. T. E. Baldwin, Mrs. Thompson Burnam, Mrs. Robert Burnam, Jr. The next meeting will be held at Caldwell High School on February 26th, at 3:30 p. m., and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Pastors' Aid Entertained.

The Pastor's Aid Society, of Calvary Baptist church, had a delightful meeting with Mrs. Elvada Tudor, on Broadway, Tuesday afternoon. The chief topic for discussion after the devotional part of the program, was ways and means of adding to the building fund of their new house of worship being erected on Big Hill avenue. The members of the Aid cleared $121.48 the past week, serving lunch at the Madison Tobacco Warehouse, which they will use for this purpose. Mrs. Tudor served a delightful lunch and the afternoon was both pleasantly and profitably spent.

Dance a Success.

The dance given by the Victory Girls Wednesday evening at Masonic Temple, was a very brilliant success and about $65 was cleared for the war work fund. The dancing hall was pretty and attractive, a profusion of red hearts being used as decorations. The costumes of the dancers were varied and quite pretty, the music was fine and the evening was one of great merriment. The frappe bowl was presided over by Mrs. Hugh Colyer and Miss Marie Harber. Sandwiches were served at intermission and the young ladies of the Victory team were highly praised by every one present for their efforts to make this the most pleasant function the young folks had attended during the winter months.

Valentine Social

The Valentine Social given by the members of the First Baptist church to the Baptist students of the Normal School on Monday evening was a most enjoyable occasion. There was an absence of the accustomed formality and stiffness which usually accompany such gatherings and everyone entered heartily into the spirit of the social hour and the evening will long be remembered by everyone present as a delightful one. About one hundred of the Normal students were present and several members of the faculty as well as a goodly number of the members of the First Baptist church and Sunday School.

Mrs. T. D. Chenault, Jr. and Rev. O. Olin Green sang the Barcarolle and Miss Gladys Hancock gave a very interesting reading. Brief addresses were made by Mr. L. P. Evans and the pastor, Dr. Green. Indentured hearts were distributed to all present and no little merriment was provoked by each one's seeking his or her partner by matching the indentures. It also proved to be an excellent means of promoting acquaintance among the guests.

Perhaps the most interesting feature of the evening's entertainment was the archery contest. Prof. J. A. Kunkle had prepared bows and arrows which were wielded quite skillfully and otherwise by both ladies and gentlemen, using a big red heart as a target in each instance. Among the ladies, the first prize went to Mrs. J. D. Bruner, who distinguished herself as being the best marksman of the occasion as she was the only one among the ladies or gentlemen who succeeded in hitting the mark. (Warning—the men with their bowitzers and machine guns had better watch out if the women get into power and take to bows and arrows). The booby prize among the ladies was won by Miss Fannie Cravens, of the Normal, who not only missed the target but hit the cook in the next room in the rear of the building. However, no one had to be carried home as the result of reckless shooting. As someone remarked the safest place in the room was where the target was.

ANNOUNCEMENT FOR ALL MODELS OF THE

Oakland : Sensible : Six

The broad utility of Oakland Sensible Six Cars is the all-important result of their marked ability.

For busy persons, such as salesmen, doctors, and women with many outside activities the Oakland Sensible Six Coupe and the Oakland Sensible Six Roadster afford that extreme spryness and activity highly essential in this class of service.

For families, the Touring model and the Sedan are notably able performers in traffic and on hills—cars quick at the getaway and instantly responsive at all times to accelerator or brake.

Three important factors contribute to their prowess: the high-speed, overhead-valve six-cylinder engine with progressively heated manifold; the scientific light-weight construction of chassis and bodies, and the distribution of this weight—the short turning radius.

In all Oaklands the high proportion of power to car weight is decidedly unusual.

Constant investigation has convinced us that Oakland Sensible Six Cars cost less to own, operate and maintain than any other automobile built.

This statement applies to our closed as well as open models due to the fact that advanced construction has eliminated all useless weight from the bodies of the former.

Owners of Oakland Sensible Sixes constantly report getting 18 to 25 miles to the gallon of gasoline. And mileages of 8,000 per set of tires are usual, while records of 12,000 miles are not infrequent. In fact we are constantly receiving letters from Oakland owners telling us of tire mileage even more impressive. (the 32x 4 tires are extra large for the weight carried).

Also, the records show that because of the firmly knit, well balanced construction of these cars they remain remarkably free from even common troubles and hence entail little repair expense.

In all Oaklands the low-setting bodies with wide-swinging doors are very easy to enter, the large seats afford ample room for the proper number of occupants and the leg space and deep upholstery add immensely to their comfort.

The noted easy-riding qualities of these cars are the result mainly of the combination of long, slow-acting, underslung rear springs and large tires.

The Sedan and Coupe have individual forward seats. In the Sedan the right-front seat may be swung against the instrument board to allow unobstructed entrance to the tonneau-seat through the rear door. In the Coupe it may be folded under the cowl when only three persons are carried in the car.

A new feature of these closed models is an unobtrusive heating device which radiates clean, pure warmth on cold winter days, enabling occupants to take advantage of the ventilating features of these automobiles.

It will be a pleasure to us to make an appointment with you and give you a demonstration of this car. The car is now on exhibition at our sales rooms on Irvine street.

Kidney disease is no respecter of persons. A majority of the ills afflicting people today can be traced back to the kidney trouble.

The kidneys are the most important organs of the body. They are the filters of your blood. If the poisons which are swept from the tissues by the blood are not eliminated through the kidneys, disease of one form or another will claim you as a victim.

Kidney disease is usually indicated by weariness, sleeplessness, nervousness, despondency, backache, stomach trouble, pain in loins and lower abdomen, gall stones, gravel, rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago.

All these derangements are nature's signals that the kidneys need help. You should use GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules immediately. The soothing, healing oil stimulates the kidneys, relieves inflammation and destroys the germs which have caused it. Go to your druggist today and get a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. In twenty-four hours you should feel health and vigor returning.

After you feel somewhat improved continue to take one or two capsules each day, so as to keep the first-class condition and ward off the danger of other attacks.

Oil News.

News from the oil fields is to the effect that work is progressing splendidly. On Buck Creek, in Estill county, the Dixieland Oil Company is now drilling No. 4, Campbell. They have been delayed here with a landslide which turned over their engine. This trouble has been adjusted and they will likely bring in this well next week. No. 3 here was a small producer.

In Lee county the Quaker Oil Co. is moving on to the Simpson Crabtree farm and will spud in at No. 2 next week.

On the Rena Butcher tract the Local Oil and Gas Company and the McCombs Producing and Refining Company, have completed No. 7 rated at 300 barrels.

Early in the week, the Wentworth Oil Company will complete No. 2 on the Gourley, Sutton and Harris farm, while the Wright Oil Company's No. 4, Spring Hollow is expected in.

Preparations are being made to test out Clay, Knox, and Leslie counties in the early spring. A number of geologists have visited these sections and brought in favorable reports which have encouraged operators to sink wells there.

In Wolfe county on the A. J. Adams heirs, the McCombs Producing and Refining Company, has completed No. 20, said to be a good producer.

Near Canal City, in Morgan county, Wible and others have completed No. 4, Susan Lykins, said to be good for 30 barrels.

Rebels Fire on Rumanian King in Insurrection

(By Associated Press)
 Berlin, Feb. 13.—A general insurrection is in progress in Rumania, according to a Vienna dispatch. King Ferdinand was slightly wounded in attempting to flee from Bucharest with the royal family. Workmen blocked the roadway from the royal palace when the King attempted to flee Jassy with his family and they were forced to return. The king was wounded when workers fired upon the palace. Rioters in the streets of Bucharest demanded the overthrow of the dynasty, crying "Long live a republic."

A Budapest newspaper says the revolt is part of Bolshevik propaganda. In a clash between the military and demonstrators at Bakost, 60 persons were killed, 150 wounded.

Meanwhile discipline in the Rumanian army is collapsing. The food and economic situation is rapidly growing worse, the country's finances are completely demoralized and the position of the Bratianu government is declared untenable.

LOOK AT A CHILD'S TONGUE WHEN CROSS FEVERISH AND SICK

Take No Chances! Move Poisons From Liver and Bowels At Once

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love it and it can not cause injury. No difference what ails your little one—if full of cold or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomach-ache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller-size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup. 1t

Stella-Vitae
 THE GUARANTEED TONIC FOR WOMEN

Stella-Vitae has been in successful use in the treatment of those diseases peculiar to women for more than a third of a century.

For nearly ten years it has been sold under a plain, positive guarantee to benefit. Less than one thousand sold has been refunded for, and every claim for a refund has been satisfied. Thousands of letters like this praising Stella-Vitae and telling of benefit to suffering women have been received.

Mrs. E. M. Russell, of Mill Springs, N. C., gratefully writes us as follows:

"I was in a most wretched condition; had palpitation of the heart and would swell and bloat in a most distressing way. When I began using Stella-Vitae I weighed 108 pounds. Now I weigh 135. I am more thankful than I can ever tell you for the great good this wonderful medicine has done me."

Mrs. Russell was at that critical period, the "change," and her sincere gratitude for the blessed relief will be understood and appreciated by every woman who reads her letter.

Stella-Vitae has proved a boon to suffering womanhood, to young girls approaching their first vital period, to women approaching the anguish of childbirth, to women approaching the "change of life." Stella-Vitae strengthens the female organs and promotes regularity in the monthly function.

No risk of loss is taken by any suffering woman who tries Stella-Vitae on our guarantee of the first bottle.

All dealers sell Stella-Vitae and will return your money if it does not benefit you. Don't put off a trial.
